				Q39				Q65	Q65	Q59
	Lager	Light, refreshing, and easy-drinking beer.		Golden Retriever	El Catrín	Playita	American lager	Münchner Hell
	Doppelbock	Malty profile with hints of caramel. A strong lager.						Salvator
	Weizen	Refreshing wheat beer, pale, light, and smooth-bodied.		Pastor Alemán		Fauna	Hefeweizen	Weissbier
	Belgian white	Light to medium body, with mild yet very pleasant bitterness. Malt and spice aromas from the blend of wheat and barley malts. A perfect balance of subtle sweetness, spices, and fruity notes.					Belgian white			Belgian white
	Blonde ale	Medium-bodied, smooth, with no harsh bitterness or astringency.	Muy noble		Chelita linda
	Tropical pale ale	Light-colored beer, but heavily hopped, resulting in bold flavor and pronounced bitterness.			Dale pale ale
	Indian pale ale	The original hop-forward Pale Ale, brewed to survive the long journey to India. Defined by its fruity, citrusy, and resinous hop character, with a pronounced bitterness.	Sin novia	Bulldog	Impunidad	Barrilete	IPA
	Amber ale	Bitter beer with a rich, full-bodied appearance. Often features caramelized notes that help balance the flavor.	Don nadie
	Scottish ale	Moderate bitterness with flavors of toasted malts, along with nutty and caramel notes that give it a medium body.					Scottish
	Red ale	Reddish color, medium body, and moderate head. A smooth initial sweetness of caramel and toffee, finishing with a light dry toastiness—easy and pleasant to drink.			Chela Guevara
	Porter	A favorite of London dock porters in the 18th century. Features toasted malt flavor, caramel and malty sweetness, with a moderate bitterness from the hops.					Porter
	Stout	Extremely dark, with a dense head and a high alcohol content. Flavors of roasted malt, caramel, tobacco, and chocolate, finishing with a strong bitter edge.	Cucurucho	Doberman	Pinchazo	Pacaya			Draught stout
